

6.Ukrainian World Golf Challenge

21.May - 28.May 2011

Berlin/Bad Saarow

Germany

We proudly invite all golfers, their partners, families, and friends associated with Ukrainian communities in Australia, Canada, Europe, Great Britain, Sweden, Ukraine, USA and everywhere else where Ukrainian communities flourish! Join us in our 6th International Challenge for men and women who are experienced, new, serious or social golfers. More importantly, come and meet old and make new friends, rekindle old friendships, and promote great relationships between countries and Ukrainian communities.

This is the first time that Germany has the honor to host this week-long event. We promise to continue the tradition of excellence set by previous challenges in Vancouver/Canada (2008), Brisbane/Australia (2005), Kapalua/Hawaii (2003), Marbella/Spain (2001), and Fort Lauderdale/ Florida (1998).

The first and only five-star superior golf course in a German-speaking country (German Golf Course Owners Association) has a truly fitting location. Right next to the resort, which was named Germany's leading Golf Resort 2008 (World Travel Awards), these courses with their first-class greens are the perfect setting for a day of relaxing golf. The three resort courses were all designed by legendary architects and are integrated harmoniously into their natural surroundings.

For Stan Eby, Arnold Palmer and Nick Faldo, of which the latter designed the most demanding course in Germany, variety and natural beauty were at the forefront of their plans from the very start. Their aim for the resort's 63 holes was to offer golfers of all ability levels the chance to enjoy top-quality golf in stunning natural surroundings.

Golfers of all abilities are welcome. Scores are based on individual established handicaps utilizing a modified Stableford system. Players will play and compete for individual trophies as well as contributing to their countries team scores in a bid to win the overall Challenge.
