

MARIIA KUPRIIANOVA, MBA
Executive Director
(Canada)

Mariia Kupriianova oversees the delivery of UWC programs globally and leads the UWC global team with offices in Toronto, Kyiv, Brussels, and New York.

With over a decade of experience in British and Ukrainian government organizations, as well as the not-for-profit sector in Canada, Kupriianova has an extensive background in advocacy, senior stakeholder relationships, fundraising, and team leadership. Kupriianova holds a number of prestigious awards, including the UK Department for International Trade Global Champion Award for Outstanding Leadership (2018).

Kupriianova speaks 5 languages (English, Ukrainian, French, Russian, and Spanish). She earned her MBA from Vadym Het'man Kyiv National Economic University (joint program with Groupe ICN Ecole de Management, Nancy), and holds a Master of Arts (Honours) in French Language and Literature from Kyiv National Taras Shevchenko University (Ukraine).